Office hours: M 1400-1445, T 1315-1445, W 1230-1445, F 1400-1445, and by appointment. Beginning and end times of office hours will be enforced strictly. There is no open door policy.

Description

Introduction to the nuclear engineering field and careers in the nuclear industry. Topics include engineering ethics, nuclear history, elementary nuclear and reactor physics, reactor types, nuclear safety, nuclear fuel cycle and radiation protection.

Prerequisites

None

Course Objectives

This course provides introductions to nuclear engineering, UF’s nuclear engineering major, nuclear careers, and engineering ethics. Career opportunities within or adjacent to nuclear engineering are also included, primarily through a short series of guest lectures.

Program Outcomes (ABET)

While ENU 1000 indirectly supports many outcomes, no outcome assessments occur in this course.

Course Schedule

Date	Due	Material
23 Aug		Introduction to Course, Syllabus Review
30 Aug		Overview of Nuclear Engineering Field
6 Sep		Overview of UF's Nuclear Engineering Major
13 Sep		Nuclear History
20 Sep		Introduction to Radiation & Radioactivity (1/2)
27 Sep	HW 1	Introduction to Radiation & Radioactivity (2/2)
4 Oct	HW 2	Nuclear Fission and Nuclear Reactors (1/2)
11 Oct		NO CLASS (UF HOLIDAY)
18 Oct	HW 3	Nuclear Fission and Nuclear Reactors (2/2)
25 Oct	HW 4	Radiation Detection (Dr. James Baciak) & Nuclear Materials (Dr. Assel Aitkaliyeva)
1 Nov		Engineering Ethics (1/2)
8 Nov	HW 5	Medical and Health Physics (Dr. Wesley Bolch)
15 Nov		Engineering Ethics (2/2)
22 Nov	HW 6	Career Planning (second-half guest: Ms. Pingchien Neo)
29 Nov		NO CLASS (UF HOLIDAY)

Grading

Grades will be assigned based on the following weighting

- Attendance (40%)
- Homework (60% – 10% each)

& the following scale

- A: 87%+
- A-: 85-86.99%
- B+: 83-84.99%
- B: 75-82.99%
- C: 66-74.99%
- E: < 66%

The gradebook on Canvas is used to enable you to look up grades quickly. Note that this gradebook is not official. I reserve the right to correct errors, including transcription errors, from the official (spreadsheet) gradebook, to which I alone have access, until finalization of grades with the registrar.

More information on UF grading policy may be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

Grading Notes

1. I reserve the right to grant higher grades at the end of the course at my sole discretion, including the use of B- and C+. Under no circumstances will grades of C- or any flavor of D be used.
2. The gradebook on Canvas is used to enable you to look up grades quickly. Note that this gradebook is not official. I reserve the right to correct errors, including transcription errors, from the official (spreadsheet) gradebook, to which I alone have access, until finalization of grades with the registrar.
3. Under no circumstances will a homework be accepted after solutions have been released. If you have any form of excuse/accommodation that delays your due date until after the release of solutions, that will be taken as an excused homework for you. The weighting of your other homework will then be increased to ensure homework is 60% of your grade.
4. As befits a one-credit course, the workload is rather light. However, this means that there is less margin for error. For example, a single unexcused absence coupled with a missed homework – perhaps due to a single incident of oversleeping (or overpartying, etc.) – is enough to make an A mathematically impossible.

Grade Appeal

All appeals of grades, including those from clerical/grade-calculation errors, must be made within 1 week of return. (This may be modified for specific assignments near the end of the term. I will announce this via e-mail as needed.)

Grade appeals must be provided in the following format:

- Include your entire assignment unmodified.
- Attach (paper clip preferred) a written summary of which problem(s) or part(s) you believe were graded inaccurately. Be as specific as possible.
- Turn in your appeal to me at class time or during office hours.
- I will review your grade appeal, contact you via your ufl.edu e-mail address, and return the assignment in class. Fairly simple appeals provided to me during office hours may be decided upon while you wait, at my discretion.

Appeals will be considered for clerical errors, addition errors, and inconsistent scoring. Grade appeals will not be entertained if you simply do not like that (for example) Part 1 was worth only 2 points with Part 2 worth 5.

On very rare occasions, if I believe the student is not acting in a good faith belief that more points are deserved, I will deem the appeal frivolous. Following two frivolous appeals, your grade appeal privilege through this method will be revoked. Further appeals must be done through the petitions process, which requires formal paperwork and department/program level involvement.

Course Policies

Attendance

Attendance is required, graded, and will be taken, starting August 26 (first class). Students arriving at or after 1255 will be considered absent. Your attendance score will be computed as the fraction of required classes that you attend. Sessions that are cancelled for any reason and excused absences do not count in this calculation. That is, if (among the 13 scheduled sessions), you miss 2 (unexcused), have 1 excused absence, and 1 is cancelled due to weather, your attendance score will be 9/11, not 10/12 or 11/13.

Class Conduct

There is no tolerance for mobile phones or other electronic disruptions. Such disruptions will lead to the student being told to leave the room for the duration of the class period, including during examination periods. The same principle applies to office hours or appointments – if you stop by my office and your phone rings, you will be told to leave the room for the duration of that day’s office hours (or your appointment considered over). Students who arrive late, leave early, or step out briefly mid-class to handle personal business must do so with a minimum level of disruption to the class in progress.

Rare exceptions to the above may be offered with notice (including just before class) and meritorious reasons (e.g.; an in-progress surgery of a close family member).

Excuse Absence and Late Work Policy

Excuses for absence and late work can be grouped into the categories of professional, medical, and personal.

Professional: Reasonable extensions for job/internship interviews, technical conferences, or other professional/career development reasons should be requested. Most requests are granted, excluding those that provide a student or group of students an unfair advantage, cause significant disruption to the course or grading schedule, or violate some UF policy.

Medical: Extensions will also be granted for (your own) medical reasons – please do not come to class if you are ill. Per UF policy, in the case of medical issues that are frequent or suspiciously-timed (e.g.; you are repeatedly, suddenly ill at deadlines), I may request a signed note from a physician or similar professional practitioner.

Personal: In addition, UF policies require accommodation for several non-academic, non-medical reasons. Extensions for these personal issues are generally limited to those mandated by the letter of UF policies, The list of UF-approved personal reasons changes from time to time. If you have a question regarding your personal issue and if it qualifies under one of the excused absence/late-work policies, contact me in advance.

I reserve the right to grant extensions for other personal reasons as rare exceptions to the rule at my sole discretion – advance notice gives you the best chance at a favorable decision. The approval of an extension does not establish precedent for that student (notably, there are some scenarios that I may accommodate only once) or for other students with similar circumstances.

The 12-day rule will be enforced strictly. Note that the count of days is based on a per-student, not per-approved-activity basis.

For the purposes of this course, in the above-referenced list of approved absence (extension) reasons, the word “family” shall be taken to mean your parents, grandparents, great-grandparents (etc.); children, grandchildren (etc.); siblings; aunts/uncles; nieces/nephews; your spouse and the spouse of any of the above; and half- or step- “versions” of the above categories. More distant relatives (a cousin, your spouse’s sibling’s spouse, etc.), partners (excluding spouses), and pets are not included. Minor illnesses (guideline: anything meriting home care only or care at a walk-in clinic, as opposed to an ER) of family members, including minor children, do not count as serious family emergencies, nor do events such as birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, etc.

Political activities, including protests, demonstrations, and the like are considered personal matters and not generally permitted as reasons for extensions. This includes activities related to nuclear engineering or nuclear power. Exceptions: (1) A student who is pursuing nuclear-related (whether pro- or anti-) politics as a career path may be granted extensions, at my discretion, on condition of providing evidence of bona fide efforts to secure a full-time position or to secure admission to a relevant, non-STEM degree-granting graduate program and (2) activities between November 15 and November 22, inclusive, that are connected to the 2019 ANS “Winter” Meeting will be taken as related to that professional activity and potentially grounds for extensions.

Further, be advised that any approved reasons for extensions do not reduce the amount of work you are expected to complete, but merely rearranges the timing. For those issues that are predictable (interview, holidays, etc.), you should work ahead to avoid disruption. In the case where your extension (or other accommodation) adversely affects a group project, I may modify the assignment and/or groups for those concerned to minimize the disruption of one student’s issues on other group members.

Pursuant to HWCOE policy, the following statement is required: Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog and require appropriate documentation.

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Homework

Excluding the make-up work policies, above, no late homework will be accepted.

Homework may be submitted electronically (via Canvas) or as hard copy; some may have required electronic submissions indicated on the assignment sheets. The following restrictions apply for electronic submissions:

- Submissions may include multiple files, but only files with the following extensions will be accepted: pdf, xls, xlsx, and txt.
- If a hard copy and electronic submission are provided, the hard copy will take precedence. (Only it will be read, reviewed, and graded.) You may not submit parts of the homework electronically and parts in hard copy, unless explicitly allowed on that assignment sheet.

Electronic Communication and Course Website

The primary means of communication with the class outside of class time will be e-mail listserv. These listservs will send to your @ufl.edu address only. Any inquiries regarding grading will be directed towards your @ufl.edu address only, per FERPA.

Technical and procedural questions will be answered as a reply to whatever e-mail address you used to send them. If the entire class will benefit from the answer, I may send to the class list (either in lieu of or in addition to a direct reply to you, at my discretion). If you do not wish to have a specific e-mail to me regarding technical content or course procedures replied to through the class list, you must explicitly state this in that e-mail. In such a case, I will reply directly to you and send a general-purpose announcement to the class list, not indicating who caused me to send it.

When sending questions via e-mail, please make sure you provide all the information needed for me to produce an answer or solution. This includes any files, particularly EES files, on which you are working. (Note: I will not open files from students in the following formats: .ppt, .pptx, .doc, .docx; make a PDF and send that if needed.)

Letters of Recommendation/Evaluation Policy

To request a letter of recommendation/evaluation (for graduate school or otherwise), you must provide:

- A hard copy of your UF transcript.
- A hard copy of a résumé (or CV).
- A hard copy of the following form with all four circles checked (requests with three or fewer circles checked will be denied):
<http://www.registrar.ufl.edu/pdf/ferparelease.pdf>.

Letters are typically filed once per week. For students whom I know only through coursework, my letter typically focuses on an estimate of their rank-in-class and on their performance on projects and challenging problems.

I will only file one batch of letters per student during the term, for any student currently enrolled in a class with me. (This policy is designed to keep me from looking up slight changes in your rank/performance multiple times for multiple batches of letters.) I recommend that this batch occur as late as possible in the term to allow me sufficient information (sample size) on your performance to write a useful letter.

I reserve the right to refuse to provide a letter for any student and am not obligated to provide a reason for such refusal.

Changes to Syllabus

Changes to this syllabus will be provided via the Canvas platform. Such changes may include those required by policy changes, my travel, changes in the speed of course coverage, university closure, errors in previous syllabus versions, and other reasons.

Syllabus Boilerplate

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc>) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to me when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluations

The University of Florida expects students to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals.

Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at: <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>

Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>

Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at: <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code:

<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>

specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Commitment to a Safe and Inclusive Learning Environment

The Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering values broad diversity within our community and is committed to individual and group empowerment, inclusion, and the elimination of discrimination. It is expected that every person in this class will treat one another with dignity and respect regardless of gender, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, and culture.

If you feel like your performance in class is being impacted by discrimination or harassment of any kind, please contact your instructor or any of the following:

- Your academic advisor or Undergraduate/Graduate Program Coordinator [for NE/NES students, these are both also your instructor]
- Robin Bielling, Director of Human Resources, 352-392-0903, rbielling@eng.ufl.edu
- Curtis Taylor, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, 352-392-2177, taylor@eng.ufl.edu
- Toshikazu Nishida, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, 352-392-0943, nishida@ufl.edu

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see:

Campus Resources

Health and Wellness

U Matter, We Care

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.
