Course Description

Introduction to the materials used in nuclear energy systems and their response to the reactor environment. The majority of materials related issues encountered in the nuclear power plants are discussed in this course.

Course Pre-Requisites / Co-Requisites

None.

Course Objectives

To provide the students with a comprehensive knowledge on the types of materials used in nuclear reactors, their response to the reactor environments and most of the materials problems encountered in the operation of nuclear power reactors for energy production.

Materials and Supply Fees

None.

Required Textbooks and Software

No required textbook, and the course notes will be provided through Canvas.

Recommended Materials

Fundamentals of Radiation Materials Science, Gary Was

Fundamental aspects of nuclear reactor fuel elements, Donald R. Olander

Nuclear Reactor Materials and Applications by B. Ma

Course Schedule

Overview:

- 1. Course Introduction
- 2. Materials in Nuclear Reactor

Basis of Materials:

- 3. Crystal structures
- 4. Point defects in solids
- 5. Diffusion
- 6. Dislocation and grain boundary

Radiation damage:

- 7. Collision theory, Cross sections, Energy loss
- 8. SRIM, Range, Damage

- 9. Ion, Neutron damage
- 10. Microstructural development

Fuel:

- 11. Chemistry, fabrication, failure
- 12. Fission products
- 13. Swelling

Mechanical performance:

- 14. Creep
- 15. Hardening
- 16. Toughness

Corrosion:

- 17. Thermodynamics
- 18. Kinetics
- 19 Corrosion in nuclear fuel

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Proper behavior in class is required, eating, texting, chatting, or other activities that are not part of the class are not allowed. Students who do not comply with these requirements or who behave disorderly or disrespectfully may be asked to leave the classroom. Cell phones and other electronic devices must be completely silence or turned off.

Attendance is required and will be monitored using sign up sheets, and your attendance records will be available on Canvas. Five or more un-excused absences will result in a deduction of 20 points from your final grade.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>) and require appropriate documentation.

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc>) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/evals>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see:
