Course Format

This course uses a team-based learning approach that uses pre-class preparation materials (including watching pre-recorded lectures and reading assignments) and active learning activities during class time. Your completion and involvement in all these aspects of the course is critical to success.
Pre-Class Preparation Materials

Pre-Recorded Lectures will help you prepare for the active learning activities and are a critical aspect of learning the content of this course. You are required to watch them using Perusall. Whether you watch and interact with the lectures will be evaluated and will be worth 10% of the grade.

Reading assignments will also help you prepare for the active learning activities and are another critical aspect of learning the course content. Your completion of the reading will be worth 10% of your grade and will be assessed using Perusall.

Active Learning Activities

Attendance to Live Classes is not required but highly encouraged since there will be discussion individual and group work on In Class Exercises. Students are encouraged to ask questions and participate. The fundamental concepts will be repeated as required.

In Class Exercises (ICE) will be given during the live classes. These exercises will be counted for credit and will be worth 25% of the grade.

Homework Problems

Homework is not required for this course. However, suggested homework problems will be provided via Canvas (WileyPlus) to help students prepare for the exams. These problems are not required and no credit will be provided.

Exams

There will be 5 exams throughout the semester. Your lowest exam grade will be dropped. The exam content may change, and the dates are tentative and will be finalized after the add/drop period.

Each exam is weighted equally, and each exam will be worth 10% of your final grade. You will have 50 minutes to complete each exam. Exams will be given via Canvas.

There will be a comprehensive final exam that is worth 15% of the grade.

You have one week after the test results are posted to resolve any questions about scores and grades. No changes to your exam grade will be made after that time.

Exam Conflicts with other course exams

The official UF policy on exam conflict resolution states that when two exams conflict, the course with the higher number will take priority. There will be no exceptions to this rule.

Make-up exams

Students who do not take an exam will receive a grade of 0. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx) and require appropriate documentation.

Syllabus Changes

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the syllabus as needed. Any changes will be clearly announced on Canvas.
Online Teaching

Although rarely, our class sessions may be audio visually recorded. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

The university syllabi policy, including the information regarding COVID impacts can be found on the following website:

http://www.syllabus.ufl.edu/syllabus-policy/

Course Communication

E-Learning will be the primary avenue for communication and course management. All announcements for the course will be made using the announcement system on the E-Learning site. Make sure and change your E-Learning settings so that you get notifications about announcements, assignments, exams, changes, etc. in a timely manner.
