Course Format

This course uses a team-based learning approach that uses pre-class preparation materials (including watching pre-recorded lectures and reading assignments) and live lectures. The class time will be dedicated to lectures and/or In-Class Exercises and Discussions. Your completion and involvement in all these aspects of the course is critical to success.

Pre-Class Preparation Materials

Pre-Recorded Lectures will help you prepare for the active learning activities and are a critical aspect of learning the content of this course. You are required to watch them using Perusall. Whether you watch and interact with the lectures will be evaluated and will be worth 15% of the grade.

Reading assignments will also help you prepare for the active learning activities and are another critical aspect of learning the course content. Your completion of the reading will be worth 15% of your grade and will be assessed using Perusall.

Active Learning Activities

Attendance to Classes is not required but highly encouraged since there will be discussion individual and group work on In Class Exercises. Students are encouraged to ask questions and participate. The fundamental concepts will be repeated as required.

In Class Exercises (ICE) will be given during the classes. These exercises will be counted for credit and will be worth 20% of the grade.

Homework Problems

Homework is not required for this course. However, suggested homework problems will be provided via Canvas (WileyPlus) to help students prepare for the exams. These problems are not required, and no credit will be provided.

Exams

There will be 5 exams during the semester. The exam content may change, and the dates are tentative and will be finalized after the add/drop period.

You have one week after the test results are posted to resolve any questions about scores and grades. No changes to your exam grade will be made after that time.

Exam Conflicts with other course exams

The official UF policy on exam conflict resolution states that when two exams conflict, the course with the higher number will take priority. There will be no exceptions to this rule.

Make-up exams

Students who do not take an exam will receive a grade of 0. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>) and require appropriate documentation.

Syllabus Changes

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the syllabus as needed. Any changes will be clearly announced on Canvas.

Course Communication

E-Learning will be the primary avenue for communication and course management. All announcements for the course will be made using the announcement system on the E-Learning site. Make sure and change your E-Learning settings so that you get notifications about announcements, assignments, exams, changes, etc. in a timely manner.

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.
