Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Attendance will not be monitored, nor will it be considered in the grade. However, quizzes will be given and some materials covered during lecture will not be covered in the references or in the notes provided online. Students are responsible for obtaining these materials. If a student arrives late or leaves early, he/she is expected to do so with minimum level of disruption to the class in progress.

Students will take quizzes on the electronic medium of their choice, including their phones. Students can take notes on laptops. However, the use of phone is prohibited during class after the quiz is completed and phone will be muted during lecture. A student using a phone or having a phone ringing will be told to leave the room for the duration of the lecture - the same principle applies to office hours or appointments.

Excused absences must be in compliance with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (<http://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=2020#attendance>) and require appropriate documentation.

Missed quizzes for reasons outside compliance with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (see above) will receive a zero grade.

Missed homework or report for reasons outside compliance with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (see above) will be granted an extension with penalty: the grade will be reduced by 50% for work received up to 1 day late, 75% for up to 2 days late, 100% beyond 2 days late.

Students who know in advance they will be absent for a scheduled exam or hands-on work and for reasons in compliance with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (see above) will inform the instructor in writing (such as email) as soon as they know about it and no later than one week before the exam. The student will take the exam in advance, no sooner than the Friday immediately before the scheduled exam. Students missing an exam, without prior notification of the absence and for reasons in compliance with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (see above), will be allowed to take another version of that exam within one week of the scheduled exam; if this is not possible, that exam grade will be calculated at the end of the semester as the average of the remaining exam. Any additional missed exam that cannot be rescheduled will receive a zero grade.

Professional: Reasonable extensions for job/internship interviews, technical conferences, or other professional / career development reasons should be requested. Requests are typically granted, at the instructor's discretion, unless an extension would grant a student or group of students an unfair advantage over their peers, cause significant disruption to the course or grading schedule, or violate a UF policy.

Medical: Extensions will be granted for (your own) medical reasons – please do not come to class if you are ill. Per UF policy, in the case of medical absences that are frequent or suspiciously-timed (e.g., repeatedly, suddenly ill at deadlines), the instructor may request a signed note from a physician or similar professional practitioner.

Personal: In addition, UF policies require accommodation for several non-academic, non-medical reasons. Extensions for these personal issues are strictly limited to those mandated by UF policies.

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.ua.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.ua.ufl.edu/public-results/>.
