Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Attendance Policy. Attendance is not mandatory. Attendance is not factored into grading.

Electronics. Use of cell phones or laptops for non-class related activities (checking email, etc.) is not permitted. The instructor reserves the right to instruct individuals to leave the classroom for violating this policy.

Makeup Exam Policy. Students who need to miss an exam due to extenuating circumstances and who wish to take a makeup exam will be required to provide prior notice and to provide evidence that it is necessary to miss the exam. Missing an exam without prior notice will only be excused under documented and compelling circumstances. Makeup exams will not be permitted if the instructor is not notified of the circumstances within 24 hours after the exam has been given. A makeup exam shall be scheduled in accordance with University policy.

Quizzes. The quizzes will be at either the beginning or end of the class period according to the circumstances; the subject matter will be announced on the class period preceding the quiz date. Makeup quizzes will only be given under documented circumstances according to the University policy. Makeup quizzes will not be permitted if the instructor is not notified of the circumstances within 24 hours after the quiz has been given. Makeup quizzes will not be permitted after the quiz answer key has been posted. The lowest quiz score will be dropped.

Assignments. Assignments must be submitted via Canvas. Late assignments will not be accepted. Note carefully the time that the assignment is due—any assignment turned in after the due date and time gets flagged by Canvas as submitted late, and will not be accepted. The lowest assignment grade will be dropped.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies. Click here to read the university attendance policies: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

Legibility. Assignments or portions of assignments, (including quizzes and exams) that are illegible will receive zero credit. As a guideline, difficult to read (or messy) = illegible.

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. #### In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To "publish" means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
